My Brothers:

What a great time we had at Saint Johns weekend in Utica New York. The pleasure of seeing the grounds and all its establishments were endless. I was pleased to see what a wonderful turnout we had. A BIG Congratulations are in order to our R.:W.: Joseph Mandel in his new quest as District Deputy Grand Master of the Loyal Eight Manhattan District.. It was an honor to see R.:W.:Mandel and R.:W.: Jerry Cooper in acquiring their new status, Congratulations!

Moving along, Our Family Picnic will be on us before you can imagine. August 14th.at “Kopling on the Hudson” in Montrose NY. I hope the Siegel’s are practicing their horseshoe toss. Our 8th District Family Fishing trip will be held on September 12th. leaving from Freeport Long Island. Please mark your calendars. These two events are opportunities of fun and enjoyment for all of us to share.

My Brothers once again our foundation needs your help, Please see the enclosed form. W.:Mike Hyman never refuses money. How’s business Mike?.

To our retired and newly retired (congratulations W.:Artie Kessler) brothers I wish them well, and many happy trails. Golfing ? Boating?

As we embark on our summertime activities, let us not forget our serviceman and women who preserve our ways of life. Please keep them in your daily prayers and wish them a speedy return home.

May the light continue to shine above them and on us all. May goodwill prevail, and may the heavens rejoice. Until we meet again warm and best wishes to all.

Fraternally,
W.: Kenneth Arango
