From the East:

Dear Brethren:

Monday, March 15, 2010 was the Grand Lecturers Convention and I'm extremely proud of all the officers in attendance. Having this event on an off night poses a challenge to many of us in our busy lives, to allocated the additional time. Health and business are a very real part of our Masonic as well as personnel lives.

Our meeting of April 1st will be Move Up Night as well as the report and performance of the Foundation. Of all the Officers in the line, the two that go most un-noticed are that of the Treasurer and the Secretary. To that end, we must applaud the efforts of RW Marty Dashevsky who has spun his hat many times over these past few years to provide the leadership, as well as rolling up his sleeves, to get whatever task he was presented completed.

Many nights were spent in meetings at the Grand Lodge Building as well as one on one meetings with other members who have also stepped up to the plate to ensure the health of our Lodge.

While R.'.W.'. Ruiz will be honored twice in the next two months for his contribution to the Grand Lodge and the district, we have no such plans for R.'.W.'.Dashevsky, short of your attendance at this meeting.

Men of this quality and conviction are hard to find even in the Craft and deserve your presence and accolade at this meeting in particular to show your support for his un-tiring efforts on behalf of Harry S Truman Lodge No. 1066 and the Foundation.

Fraternally,
W.'.Matthew Donovan
