From the East:

Fraternal Greetings Brothers,

At our next meeting on March 3rd we will be conferring the Degree of Fellowcraft. Our very own Senior Warden, Steve Siegel, will be doing the Master's work and our Degree team is working hard in preparation. Come on out and support your Lodge, and let's pass these Brothers with a full Lodge room!

There will be a pre-meeting dinner at Limerick (in the upstairs seating area) at 6:00pm, and Lodge will open at 7:30.

Our meeting on March 17th will be Move-up Night. This will give you a "sneak preview" of the ensuing year, and will give the officers of our Lodge a chance to move up a chair for the night. While I was hoping to sit on the sidelines with my hands behind my head, I will not have that chance. I will be giving a presentation at Humanitas Lodge for "Share the Light Night," and we will be bringing a delegation downstairs to support that.

There will be a pre-meeting dinner at the Lodge beginning at 6:00pm, and our Master for the evening, Steve Siegel will open the Lodge promptly at 7:30.

Thanks Brothers, and I look forward to seeing you all at the pre-meeting dinners and in Lodge.

Fraternally,
W.: Frank L. Parker
Master, Harry S Truman Lodge #1066

From the Secretary' Desk:

As I stated in the last e-mail version of the 221st meeting notice, the next few months will be a busy time for Masons and their Ladies.

March 6, 2011 is the Grand Lodge Annual Dedicated Breakfast that will be held at Marina Del Rey in the Bronx. I still have a few tickets left.

March 26, 2011 is the District Mason of the Year at Riccardo's by the Bridge. (See attached Flier). This year the District will be honoring yours truly and also having a "Murder/Mystery Night" with ladies and guest encouraged to attend. This is the first time only one brother from the District will be honored and I feel privileged that the District chose me as their honoree. The committee promises, and I concur, there will be only one or two speakers, top shelf booze, and food, and dancing.

Plan to come down and enjoy fellowship and fun.

Talking of good food and dancing, don't forget April 9, 2011 when Temple Post # 19 will be honoring Commander R.: W.: William Bontemps with a Dinner/ Dance at Chateau La Mer, Lindenhurst, NY. (Details to follow).

Then of course for Masons only we have a District Deputy visit at Lux Æterna Lodge on Feb. 22, 2011, Humanitas Lodge March 3, 2011 and James W Husted Fiat Lux April 4, 2011.

Then there is the Grand Lecturer's Convention on March 9, 2011, in Brotherhood Lodge which I urge all brothers to attend especially our newest brothers. The work will be on the First Degree. All brothers are urged to attend.

As you see we have a busy schedule, and I hope to see you all at these events.

I am repeating this message because it is important and not everyone gets the e-mail version.

With this notice I am including, to those who are delinquent, a second notice of Dues that is due. There is over $8000.00 still owed the Lodge.

We cannot operate at a deficit. We are not the government.

PLEASE PAY YOUR DUES. If you cannot pay all at once, contact me and we could work out a payment plan. Don't loose the privilege of being a Mason because you cannot pay. WE COULD WORK SOMETHING OUT.
